

Pardee House Museum

Pardee Home Museum Foundation

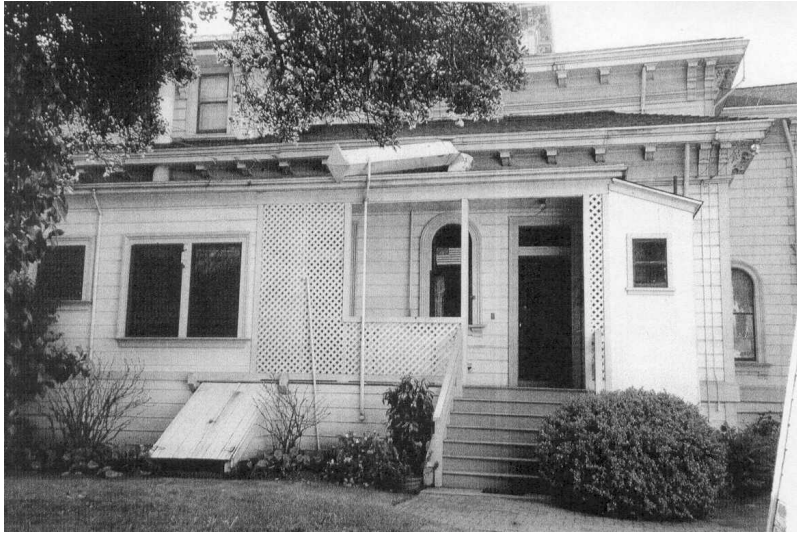

Pardee House Oakland, CA

- California Historical Landmark No. 1027
- Listed in the National Register of Historic Places
- This Italianate house, originally built in 1868, was the home of Governor George Pardee. The house has twelve rooms: the parlor, music, morning, dining, and buffet rooms, the kitchen and pantries, and six bedrooms upstairs are arranged around a central lightwell.

Pardee House Museum

Pardee Home Museum Foundation

Project Scope:

- Install a wheelchair lift and disabled accessible restroom. The lift will be installed at the rear porch of the house, and the restroom will be constructed in the former pantry area off the main hallway.

Grant Amount: $30,158